Creatively Confronting Choices and Challenges

Is your organization facing a tough challenge or thorny issue?

Are you seeking practical solutions and finding it difficult to achieve that goal?

Could you use some expert outside help?

Let the Rutland Institute for Ethics (RIE) at Clemson University coordinate and facilitate an event to produce tangible results.

RIE will help you:
- Articulate the challenge
- Set the stage for focused engagement
- Identify participants
- Secure expert panelists
- Facilitate the panel and general session
- Organize small group work sessions as appropriate
- Compile and synthesize group work
- Assist in producing a report outlining steps for a practical resolution of the problem

Respectful. Responsible. Results. Rutland.
